Benang From The Heart By Kim Scott's Benang: From the Heart

Kim Scott's Benang: From the Heart is a book I so desperately wanted to love. It's fiction that relies on actual historical family documents to spin a yarn about being the first 'white man' in a family of Australian aborigines.

Benang: From the Heart by Kim Scott

Benang soars to the level of superb storytelling with an emotional punch to the guts, not unlike Toni Morrison's Beloved. — Weekend Australian. Haunting and poignant, Benang pierces the heart even as it seeks to lance the savage bleeding of the wounds of white settlement in Australia.

Having read Kim Scott's 'True Country' which I enjoyed immensely I was keen to read Benang. I wasn't disappointed. A well deserved winner of the Miles Franklin award, Australia's major literary prize. This book is brilliant! It's not written in a linear fashion, go with the flow. (Like many films it moves around).
